narrow perch they could scarcely believe their eyes. Any one who has ascended a shaft knows how rapidly the wall plates fly by when the lantern is held so as to bring them to view. The cage from which Holland was thrown was coming up at the usual rate of speed. How the man could possibly have fallen on one of these pieces of timber without being jammed by the cage or knocked off as it went past him is a wonder. The wall plate is a square timber, fourteen by sixteen inches, so that there was very little standing room for Holland while he was waiting for the cage to come down and rescue him. If the shaft had been so light that he could look down any considerable distance of the six hundred feet between him and the bottom he would scarcely have had the nerve to cling to his narrow footing. The darkness of all mining shafts is a point in favor of the miners preserving their coolness when placed in ticklish positions. A couple of pump men will throw a foot wide plank across a shaft 200 feet from the bottom and work upon it as though they were not five feet from the bottom. The darkness of the shaft prevents the thought of the awful abyss below from being constantly present.

A RAVENOUS EAGLE.
An enormous eagle at Beaver Bay, Lake County, Minn., Attempts to Carry a Child 1-2 Years of Age.
From the Duluth Tribune.
We are in receipt of a letter from C. Wieland, Esq., Auditor of Lake county, dated the 31st instant, of which the following is the substance: Yesterday afternoon, while little August Burr, aged 7 years, was playing with his sisters, one 5 years old and the other 3½, near his father's house, an enormous eagle pounced upon them, throwing the two girls to the ground. It immediately attacked the younger one, grasping one of the child's arms with the claws of one foot, while the claws of the other foot were deeply buried in the child's face, and it attempted to carry the child off, but was prevented by its struggles. Little August, seeing that he could do nothing with his own hands to help his sister, ran quickly to the house, got the butcher knife, and came out and whacked away at the eagle's legs cutting one of them severely near the foot; whereupon the savage bird let go the little girl and attacked the boy, knocking him over, tearing his pants and giving him some severe scratches. In the meantime the screams of the children brought out their mother, whereupon the eagle flew off to the barn, on which he sat and looked as though he would like to renew the contest should a favorable opportunity offer itself; but he stayed there a little too long for his own good, as Joe Betzler, a neighbor, was called, who took down his gun and shot the great "jobber of American freedom," and his eagleship, when killed, was found to measure seven feet from wing-tip to wing-tip. The little girl who had this remarkable encounter is very badly scratched, but not seriously hurt.

MISCELLANEOUS.
FURNITURE.
Still Down at Bottom Prices
Notwithstanding the recent advance in all kinds of Furniture, we are determined to keep prices as heretofore. Having kept posted as to the doings of the recent Convention of Furniture Manufacturers, we took advantage of the market and purchased 100 dozen Chairs, about four car loads, at the old prices with usual discounts. That's good news for persons wishing to purchase such goods. All goods at lowest prices. Parlor and Chamber Furniture the largest stock that has ever been brought to this city. Our trade has never been better than last month. For five years past things have been booming with us. No use going to Chicago for Chamber Sets; we can beat them; we had it finely illustrated here to-day. No cheap goods here, but good goods cheap. No green lumber. If things are not as we tell you, we are here and you can see us; we are going to stay. Call and look over our stock.

UNDER TAKING.

OYSTERS!
A remarkable accident happened at the Hale & Norcross mill in Tipton, Mo. A cage with six men was coming up the shaft at 11 o'clock—the hour for changing shifts. When about six hundred feet from the bottom, at a point where there is an irregular place in the guides, the cage suddenly lurched to one side, throwing the men to the other. Patrick Holman, who was on the outside, was crowded off. Instead of falling to the bottom and being caught as pieces, he was safely lodged on a wall-plate. The other men on the cage supposed he had fallen into the sump, of course. When they reached the surface they got the usual sacks and boxes and started back to the sump to gather up the fragments of the body. As they approached the place in the shaft where the man was thrown off they heard a voice below them telling them to go slow. They did not know what to make of the strange discovery, never supposing it possible for Holman to be anywhere else than at the bottom. When they saw him safe on his

BRIEFLETS.

—Fire up.
—No, thank you, you keep the fan.
—Mr. Alfred Hoskins is confined to the house by illness again.
—A large crop of church entertainments is promised this season.
—Rev. Mr. Sanderson, gave an excellent discourse to the Court street folks last night on "Success."
—Two years ago to-morrow there was two inches of snow, and the thermometer stood near zero.
—Will Hollister, of the Darlington Republican, is again grasping the hands of old friends in this city.
—That's right. Send along the premiums on the beautiful snow. They're just dry enough to make roaring morning fires.
—Deputy Sheriff Allen, of Beloit, looked a little anxious when we met him on the streets here the other day. Not so, now. It's a big, bouncing, boy.
—We are in receipt of a new piece of music published by J. M. Lyon & Co., Milwaukee, and entitled "Mother and Babe." It is a pleasing song.
—Thomas Leech, the well known dry goods man, is always getting in something new and nice. The latest is a full line of children's cloaks, of all styles and sizes. Look at them.
—St. Mary's church will close their fair at Cannon's hall to-night. Such articles as have not been disposed of will be sold at auction to-night, and the fair will close with a dance.
—Harris & Smith have a far reaching trade. Orders not only come in from all parts of this country but from across the water. To-day they received an order from Rotterdam, for 150 of their safety lamps.
—At the meeting of the Mutual Improvement Club to-night, Miss Abby Libbey, Miss Rosalia Hatherall, Miss Mary Golden, and Capt. C. W. Baker will take part, the Merchant of Venice being the chief topic of talk.
—George Story, Charlie Story and Frank Story, sons of the late Uria Story, were in the city to-day, having come from Cincinnati Saturday to attend their father's funeral yesterday. Charlie Hinkley, of Chicago, a nephew of Mr. Story, was also present.
—The several Ward Committees and also all the Republicans who have an interest in the results of tomorrow's election are requested to meet at the office of Bennett & Sale at 7:30 o'clock this evening, to complete the necessary arrangements for securing a glorious victory.
—There is to be a dance at Young America hall Thanksgiving eve for the benefit of the Catholic Temperance Band. Harry Anderson's band is to furnish music. A fifty cent dance is to be given at the same hall next Friday evening, at which Tuckwood's band will furnish music.
—Mr. E. H. Kellogg, of Chicago, spent the Sabbath in the city, the guest of his cousin, George J. Kellogg. Mr. Kellogg lived here years ago, and has many friends and acquaintances who are always glad to greet him. He has been in the life insurance business for years, and is one of the truly wide-awake men.
—The Young Ladies Guild, of Trinity Episcopal church, are to give an entertainment at Cannon's hall Wednesday night. "Bells and Bells," a laughable farce will be given. Prof. Titcomb, Mrs. St. John and others are to take part in the musical portion of the entertainment, and there will be other attractions. The admission will be twenty-five cents.
—With the coming on of wintry weather the tramp record in the Police Court has been opened. Hugh McDougall was the first and only one who has appeared for months. He wasn't a bit one, and was only given five days. There will not probably be as many to follow him, as last winter, but those who do come will find that bread and water make a simple diet and will not cause much dyspepsia.
—Mr. Bury, traveling salesman for E. Knight Kelly & Co., of Chicago, spent Sunday in this city. He had an enjoyable chat with Marshal Russell, with whom he used to go to school years ago in England. They talked up the incidents of the olden times pretty successfully, and it served as a happy break in the monotonous Sunday passed by the Marshal, as he was kept hounded all day, on account of a very severe cold and general overwork.
—The funeral services of the late Mrs. Thompson were held yesterday afternoon at the residence of her son, Hon. J. B. Cassady. Rev. Mr. Sawin officiated, and Rev. H. Sewell conducted the services, and gave a sermon. Appropriate music was rendered by Mrs. H. A. Smith, Miss Wiley, Mr. Will Follasbee and Mr. John Wingate. A large number of friends were in attendance, and many followed the remains to their last resting place in Oakliff cemetery.
—The funeral services of Mr. Story were held yesterday at the residence of his brother-in-law, Charles Cummins, near Albany, at whose house Mr. Story was when death overtook him. The services were brief, and consisted of prayer and remarks by Elder Jamison. The remains were brought to this city, where they were laid to rest in Oak Hill cemetery. Many friends from here gathered with the others at the grave, where Mr. Pebbles offered prayer, there being no other services held.
—Louis Martz, of Edgerton, while on his way to the depot Saturday night, slipped on Milwaukee street bridge and fell, breaking his leg. He lay there for some time, most of the passers-by thinking he was drunk, he being a foreigner, and having a poor command of English. At last Dr. Horne found out that he was injured and with the assistance of others took him to Mr. Hoffmeister's where he was cared for, and Dr. Palmer was summoned. It was found that both bones, between the knee and the ankle, had been broken. Martz had engaged to go to work this week for Hodge & Buchholz, he being a wagon maker by trade.

—The funeral services of Mr. Story were held yesterday at the residence of his brother-in-law, Charles Cummins, near Albany, at whose house Mr. Story was when death overtook him. The services were brief, and consisted of prayer and remarks by Elder Jamison. The remains were brought to this city, where they were laid to rest in Oak Hill cemetery. Many friends from here gathered with the others at the grave, where Mr. Pebbles offered prayer, there being no other services held.

—Louis Martz, of Edgerton, while on his way to the depot Saturday night, slipped on Milwaukee street bridge and fell, breaking his leg. He lay there for some time, most of the passers-by thinking he was drunk, he being a foreigner, and having a poor command of English. At last Dr. Horne found out that he was injured and with the assistance of others took him to Mr. Hoffmeister's where he was cared for, and Dr. Palmer was summoned. It was found that both bones, between the knee and the ankle, had been broken. Martz had engaged to go to work this week for Hodge & Buchholz, he being a wagon maker by trade.

SILVER WEDDING.

Last evening there were about fifty friends gathered at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Lane, on High street, to celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of the marriage of that worthy couple. In the invitations given, no hint was dropped as to the occasion of the gathering, but some of the friends got at the date, and determined to band together in giving some tokens that should serve as lasting mementoes of the gathering. An elegant silver cake basket, and a silver spoon holder, of equally rich pattern, were quietly placed in the hands of the host and hostess. A beautiful silver and cut glass bouquet holder, containing choice flowers, arranged with charming good taste, was also among the gifts, it being from their son Eugene P. Lane.

The parlors were modestly and tastefully decorated with autumn leaves, ferns, and flowers, and upon the wall appeared in silver letters the dates marking the lapse of years since first the host and hostess pledged their honor and love, one to another.

The evening was passed in social chatting, interspersed with a little music. Refreshments were served with a bountiful hand and arranged temptingly. All seemed to enjoy the occasion heartily, and many were the well wishes and congratulations which greeted the ears of host and hostess as their guests took their leave.

ANOTHER SERIOUS DISASTER PREVENTED.

I am using Harris & Smith's Self-Extinguishing Safety Lamp, and can testify to its great merit. Having accidentally upset one which I was using, it fell to the floor. It was lighted, and was full of kerosene, but as it once extinguished itself, the oil did not get on fire, therefore prevented any damage. Had it been an ordinary lamp, I might not now be alive and well. I recommend the new safety lamp to all who wish safety from this great source of danger to life and property.

THE CATHOLIC FAIR.

The Fair given by St. Mary's Catholic church was in progress every afternoon and evening of last week, and has proved a grand success, though the actual results in dollars and cents cannot yet be given. Saturday night the hall was densely crowded and all seemed to enjoy themselves. The ball boxes attracted much attention and proved an exciting incentive to work. The contest on the gold watch and the silver easter run high.

The total vote on the gold watch was upwards of 1200, of which T. T. Croft was found to have a large majority and to him was given the ticker, which is a beauty. The easter was an elegant one, and the contest was somewhat closer on this. Over 1000 votes were polled, and Miss Nellie Murphy captured the prize.

As a result of the drawing Miss Lizzie Lawler was given the beautiful silver cake basket. George Prichard won the silver butter dish. Sam Nestling had his heart filled with joy at drawing the big doll, and to him also was given the sofa pillow.

There being a number of articles still undisposed of, it was decided to auction them off at Cannon's hall to-night, Apollo hall being engaged for other purposes. This will be the closing evening of the Fair, and a merry dance is to be had as a befitting finish. The Fair has been well managed, and the success is well-merited.

I THANKFULLY acknowledge, that the use of ST. JACOB'S OIL has been of great service to me. I suffered with Rheumatic Pain in the Face and Ears; induced to try ST. JACOB'S OIL, I found immediate relief, and it effected an entire cure. Moved by a sense of duty, I therefore give me great pleasure to recommend it, suffering mankind the ST. JACOB'S OIL, a remedy worthy the highest praise and unlimited patronage.

AROUND THE ROUND TABLE.

On Saturday evening the Round Table held the first of their conversational, the time being devoted to talk upon the early English literature. Hitherto the evenings have been mainly devoted to listening to carefully prepared papers on various literary topics, and such conversation as there was, followed these as a matter of secondary importance. In laying out the plan for this winter's study, it was decided to devote every other evening to the art of conversation wholly, and to have no papers. Such a conversation was held Saturday evening.

Rev. Mr. Sawin conducted it, showing the formation of the language, and its different stages, and tracing the birth and growth of its earliest literature.

Miss Angie King gave an account of Caedmon, which proved very interesting, and Mrs. Little conversed concerning Alfred the Great, and his time. The session was an enjoyable one, and the experiment proved sufficiently successful to warrant the expectation that these meetings will prove among the most interesting and instructive of the season.

A LONG WALK.

Jeffrey commenced his six days' walk at Apollo hall at five minutes past 12 o'clock this morning. He made his first mile in eleven minutes, and his fifth in ten minutes—forty-five seconds, and the first five miles in fifty-nine minutes.

The next five miles were made in one hour and four minutes, but up to 3 o'clock this afternoon he had not made any speedier time than was shown in his first five miles.

Jeffrey got in bad condition by an unfortunate circumstance this morning. He withdrew from the track for a lunch, and after eating it lay down for a short rest. There being no fire then in the room, he caught a severe cold, which lamed him badly, but he has since been working it off on the track, and has limbered up so that he promises to more than make up for the lost time.

At 2:45 this afternoon he was on his forty-sixth mile, and withdrew for a few minutes rest. He shows up finely in walking and running both, and those who know him best predict that he will make a surprisingly good record by Saturday night.

Among the Useful Toilet Articles.

We notice a much liked preparation for the hair, possessed of properties so remarkable that no one who cares to own a clean and healthy scalp with beautiful hair should pass it untried. Its properties are cleansing, invigorating and healing, and after a few applications the hair becomes to fall, dandruff and humors disappear, and the hair grows clean, soft and silky. It keeps the head cool and comfortable and gradually restores the hair, if gray or faded, to the natural and life like color, beautiful to look upon. It is Parker's Hair Balsam that has won such popular appreciation by its many excellent and healthful properties. Sold in large bottles at only 50 cts. and $1.00, by all first class druggists.

CITY NOTICES.

Fellows' Hypophosphites makes an old person look years younger. "This witness is true." Would that I could more widely make it known for its many virtues. Long may its inventor live to see the happy fruits of his invention.

QUICK FORTUNES IN STOCKS.

Vast sums of money are made in quick turns of stocks in Wall Street. Business has never been more successful. By the new combination plan, large and small investments (from $25 to $10,000) are combined in one vast sum, and operated by the most skillful experience, securing immense power in the stock market and gaining splendid profits. Thousands of customers are thus united in one concurrent enterprise, and receive their pro rata profits monthly. An Indiana country merchant made $17,892.41 in four operations. A Texas cattle dealer made $32,615.94 in two combinations; a St. Louis shipping merchant made $47,876.21 in less than six months, all through the combination plan of Messrs Lawrence & Co., which has realized the grandest successes in the history of the stock market. Their new circular, with "unerring rules for success," and complete explanations how to make money in stocks, mailed by Messrs Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, New York City.

DOES YOUR BUSINESS PAY?

Handsome profits from small and large investments, of from $25 to $25,000, in the new Mutual Capitalization System, is a matter of daily occurrence in Wall Street. The success of this improved method is attracting universal attention: it enables any one to operate successfully and secure to each participant all the advantages of unlimited capital on large investments, while profits are divided pro rata among shareholders every month. Over $1,039,32 was netted in one capitalization for each of 27 business men who furnished $2,000 respectively. A cotton manufacturer of Lowell, Mass., made $391.86 by investing $100 in a capitalization, last month. New Circular, "Rules for Success," with invaluable information to all investors, mailed free. All kinds of bonds and stocks bought and sold by ADAMS, BROWN & CO., Bankers and Brokers, 26 and 28 Broad street, New York City. oct27daw2w.

Loss of Appetite.

In persons of sedentary and literary pursuits, if the brain is overworked and the muscular underworked, the appetite is very apt to fail, from a general atony of the system. The PENICILIN SYRUP restores the tone of the digestive system, and consequently the appetite, by supplying a pure blood to organs too weak to make it without assistance. Sold by all druggists. No House Complete.

Without its bottle of SOZODON. As a mouth wash it is most sensitive; as a toilet article a luxury, and its regular use from early youth to old age, would tend to secure and maintain beautiful and healthy teeth. It is also most economical, as a few drops upon the brush is all that is needed for efficacy and pleasure.

A few drops of SPALDING'S GLUE on a brush, properly applied, holds like a vice. nov26daw1w.

STOCK OPERATIONS THAT PAY.

The past few weeks have been prolific of immense percentages of profits at the New York Exchange, by the careful use of moderate sums in well manipulated stock transactions, which returned a legitimate gain on capital invested according to correct business principles. Great activity prevails in the market. The safest and most successful method for operating in a regular way is in Financial Union by the Protective System of dealing in stocks, which affords absolute guarantees that cannot possibly be assured otherwise. The vast aggregate on the sales of shares that have recently attained such mighty proportions, have been chiefly promoted by the infusion of this new element, which has produced results surprising to all. The conservative policy of this system is its great safety. To be sure of gaining the large profits that accrue so quickly in stock movements, there must be reasonable protection against sweeping risks. This is why the Protective System excels all. On Monday three gentlemen in New York each invested $1,000 on Lake shore stock by the Financial Union System, and on Thursday closed the operation with a net profit of $3,379.27 for each investor. Tuesday a bank cashier in Philadelphia put $3,500 in Protective Options on Northwestern stock, and on Saturday closed the contract with $12,088.75 profit. Early in the previous week two mechanics in Boston united their capital and invested $250 on Michigan Central, and 10 days afterwards they received a long receipt of $3,355.35 profit. The last week in July five farmers in Central New York invested $500 each in Financial Union stock, and on Saturday closed the deal and divided $18,000 equally between them. A lady in one of the departments in Washington invested $500 for two weeks in Protective Options on Western Union and Lake Shore stocks, and made a clean profit of $379.08. On Saturday a prominent Pennsylvania real estate dealer invested $1,500 in Delaware, Lackawanna and Western and Michigan Central stocks, and in five days drew out of the market with $2,024 profit. A large brewer in St. Louis put $500 in Protective Options on St. Paul and Northwestern stocks, and fifteen days afterwards closed with a gain of $1,958.37. These are examples of what has been accomplished in Financial Union by the Protective System of operating in stocks with good advice has been followed.

With the present activity the prospects for gain in the near future are more favorable, as the operations are equally as good for catching the profit as from fluctuations up or down as they occur. Amounts from $25 to $25,000 or more can be invested with proportionate success by the Financial Union System on regular sales, that leave the control of funds in the hands of investors, with a definite knowledge at all times of just what stocks their money is in, so that they can get out at a moment's notice, and their profits are at any hour of the day by referring to market quotations. All operations are supervised by Messrs. FRANKMAN, DANIEL & CO., Bankers and Brokers, No. 19 Broad street, New York City. oct13daw1w.
